WHY PAIR ALOE WITH YOUR SUPPLEMENTS?

Taking aloe with supplements has been clinically proven to increase absorption by up to 200%

Want to increase that up to 10x? Aloesorb™ helps you absorb more!

Aloesorb™ is Lily of the Desert's clinically tested aloe polysaccharide concentrate shown to support nutrient absorption by up to 2000%. That means it supports your ability to take in more of the vitamins and supplements you're already paying for, so you get the most benefit from each dose. Think of it as a simple daily companion that helps your supplements actually work harder for you!
